

LA MANUFACTURE COGOLIN
SONGE RUG

Part of The Idylle collection, Songe rug brings to life a selection of archival gouaches by artist, fashion illustrator and designer Christian Bérard. The collection is as bold as Bérard's historical impact and as beautiful as his work in fashion, design and theatre. A major personality of the salon scene during the interwar years, Bérard was an aesthete and man of many talents. As a close friend of interior designer Jean-Michel Frank, he started to create rug designs, including commissions for La Manufacture Cogolin. A testament to Cogolin's position in the canon of 20th-century rug design, the Idylle collection's eight designs are hand-knotted by artisans in Nepal and presented in the Cogolin et les Mains du monde line.
